

Declaration on China - RoHS

Dear Sir or Madam,

Many thanks for your interest in our products. We can inform you about your inquiry as follow:

Due to far-reaching measures for implementation currently we cannot represent and document the China -RoHS. However, they are currently being processed.

The RoHS-Regulation 2011/65/EU also named RoHS-II and their requirements are compiled by us (see separate declaration).

ESKA Erich Schweizer GmbH complies nationally and internationally in principle with laws, applicable directives, standards and regulations and in parallel continuously monitors all changes that affect, for example, the scope, the CE marking or expiry dates of exemptions.

We take our obligations very seriously in our own interest and under the aspect of the greatest possible product and delivery safety. The following procedure supports compliance with applicable regulations and legal requirements:

Our suppliers undertake to comply with substance bans and declaration obligations in accordance with RoHS. Transparency, intensive cooperation in a spirit of partnership and a lively exchange of information are the foundations of our business relationships. In this way, we ensure that supplied parts comply with our and legal requirements.

Newly developed ESKA products that fall under the scope of the RoHS Directive are basically RoHS compliant.

Products, are basically checked for compliance with the limit values as well as compliance with the limit values with exemptions according to ANNEX III, and are listed in our documentation and publications with the note "RoHS compliant".

If you have any questions regarding the RoHS directive for ESKA products, do not hesitate to contact us (mail: mail@eska-fuses.de).
